Call for Papers: 2020 Civil Liberty Symposium

CSII’s mission is to provide leadership on issues pertaining to civil liberty and related institutions (governmental, civic, business, social, scientific, religious, etc.) and innovations through scholarly inquiry, educational activities and community outreach. To support this mission, CSII will host an annual civil liberty symposium open to the public featuring high quality scholarship.

CSII will host its Third Annual Civil Liberty Symposium April 6 and 7, 2020. Paper/session proposals are invited on any topic pertaining to civil liberties or their relationship to institutions and innovation.

Topics include, but are not limited to, freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assembly, freedom of association, the right to petition, academic freedom, the right to privacy, the right to equal treatment under the law, due process, the right to life, the right to own property, and the right to defend oneself.

Authors whose proposals are selected will receive an honorarium of $1000 for the presentation of their completed papers. Presenters will have up to twenty-five minutes, followed by a respondent, and audience discussion.

Deadline for proposal submission: January 17, 2020
Accepted authors notified: February January 31, 2020
